Help your child grow and learn!

This free, annual conference is exclusively for families who have children served by Iowa Educational Services for the Blind and Visually Impaired and the Iowa Deafblind Project. Parents, teens, children and babies get to know each other, learn from one another and build relationships.

10 reasons parents attend Spring Family Conference

1. The connections we make with other families is priceless.
2. They pay you to attend.
3. It's the most helpful event we've attended in learning ways to support our son.
4. We gather information to bring new ideas back to our son's education team.
5. All parents who come are from different backgrounds and have different needs for their children.
6. You will make new friends, get educational ideas, find new resources, hear inspiring stories, have fun, play and laugh.
7. You are not alone in the struggles you may face.
8. Attendees and staff are not judgmental.
9. Our family benefits greatly from the shared resources and ideas that come from the organic conversations.
10. You will learn from the opportunities and love the friendships you make at Spring Family Conference!
